

A Reading from the Gospel of Matthew - Creator tells the Good Story chapter 6:25-36 as recorded in the First Nations Version – the Indigenous Translation of the New Testament

Jesus - Creator Sets Free told the great crowd:

This is why I'm telling you not to be troubled about getting enough to eat or drink or what to wear. Is eating, drinking and clothing yourself all there is? Does your life not have more meaning than this? Look to the winged ones who soar on the wind. Do they plant seeds and gather the harvest into a storehouse? No! But your Daddy from above gives them plenty to eat. Do you know He cares even more for you?

Can worry at even one more step to the length of your life's journey?

Why do you trouble yourself with what to wear? Have you seen how the wildflowers grow in the plains and meadows? Do you think they work hard and long to clothe themselves? No! I tell you not even Solomon - the Great Chieftain Stands in Peace wearing his finest regalia, was dressed as well as even one of these. If Creator covers the wild grass and the plains with such beauty which is here today and gathered for tomorrow's fire, will Creator not take even better care of you?

Why is your faith so small? There is no need to say, what will we eat? What will we drink? What will we wear? This is what the nations who have lost their way have given their hearts to, but your Daddy from above knows you need these things.

If you will make Creator's good road your first aim, representing the Creator's right ways, the Creator will make sure you have all you need for each day. So do not worry about tomorrow's troubles. It is enough to trust the Creator to give you the strength you need to face today.
